President's Report

Connie Zwarich

January and February have been quite quiet. March starts things up again with elections followed in April with an important safety presentation, then May Members Appreciation Night and ending with the Fun Night in June. We'd love to see you.

Don and Doug did make a road trip and joined Norm Pellerin in North Bay to present a cheque to the North Bay Hospice.

March is our Election's Meeting. If you are interested in becoming a part of the executive there is still time to put your name forward. You can contact Don Delongchamp.

In honour of St Patrick's Day be sure to wear some green.

Our meal for March is meatloaf, mashed potatoes, gravy, salads, buns, dessert all for only $30. Our young caterers do a marvellous job. It is important that you RSVP so these ladies can prepare enough food.

In April we are having a representative from the Police Services speak to use on safety. She will speak about online safety, how to recognize scams and how to protect yourself. This has become a very significant issue in our lives. I encourage you to come out to this meeting. If you have a friend or relative who would benefit from this, please bring them along.

I hope everyone is surviving the blasts of winter we have been experiencing. If you are shovelling, please be careful. If you are on the roads, drive according to the conditions and for goodness sakes clear the snow off your vehicle before you set out.

Good news, it is only about a month until the official start of Spring. We hope!

Bingo

John Roy

We are always looking for new Bingo volunteers. It is an easy job. Only 2 hours. You pick up the discarded Bingo sheets after each game, call back the winner's card number, and act as an ambassador for our club.

Before you can volunteer you must do an online training. It takes an hour at the most. Then you work with a trained volunteer for your first Bingo. We average about $1500 per Bingo. Not bad for 2 hours of work.

Training Link www.charitablegaming.com/volunteer-training

Just for your information January's Bingo's disbursement was $6063.67. That was for 4 assignments, for a total of 8 hours of volunteer work. Pretty good return on our services.

Humour

This guy sees a sign in front of a house "Talking Dog for Sale."

He rings the bell, and the owner tells him the dog is in the back yard. The guy goes into the back yard and sees a mutt sitting there.

"You talk?" he asks.

"Yep," the mutt replies.

"So, what's your story?"

The mutt looks up and says "Well, I discovered this gift pretty young, and I wanted to help the government, so I told the CIA about my gift, and in no time they had me jetting from country to country, sitting in rooms with spies and world leaders. Because no one figured a dog would be eavesdropping, I was one of their most valuable spies eight years running. The jetting around really tired me out. I knew I wasn't getting any younger and I wanted to settle down.

So, I signed up for a job at the airport to do some undercover security work, mostly wandering near suspicious characters and listening in. I uncovered some incredible dealings there and was awarded a bunch of medals. I had a wife, a mess of puppies, and now I'm just retired."

The guy is amazed. He goes back in and asks the owner what he wants for the dog. The owner says, "Ten dollars."

The guy says he'll buy him but asks the owner, "This dog is amazing. Why on earth are you selling him?"

The owner replies, "He's a liar. He's never been out of the backyard."
